« La Bouitte ... or a family adventure which has become a saga! Year after year, in complete discretion, René and Maxime Meilleur – a father and son partnership – have forged a restaurant with a rare genuineness, a superb ode to the Savoy. Each ingredient has its place, cooked to perfection, with no excess. The dishes, overflowing with original aromas, exude, just simply, happiness. ».

(The 2018 Michelin Guide)

“René, the father, and Maxime, the son. Best* as a duo or just Best*. An exceptional combination, a mountain yin and yang that expresses the soul of a land and the quintessence of a passion. On the yin side, scrupulous attention to the product, like the herbs and berries that René picks daily. On the yang side, the spirit and the inspirations of Maxime. The result is a “smart yet understandable” cuisine. Here, everything is imagined as a family, since the mother, daughter, daughter-in-law and son-in-law all work together in the restaurant and in the service. Finally, note that they also welcome guests for the night. In a chalet, bedrooms and suites decorated with the latest mountain chic await you. A real cocoon.”

LA BOUITTE AS TOLD BY ITS GUESTS

Here is a collection of extracts from guests' letters following their stay at La Bouitte ...

“La Bouitte is above all the adventure of the Meilleur family, which in 45 years has been built around its creator and pillar René. From the first minute, you feel drawn to the humanity of René and his son Maxime. Bright, benevolent eyes. What strikes and moves above all is this natural kindness. The Best are Earthlings, rooted humanists, who know where they come from and who have remained humble. Few Houses combine the excellence of the culinary art with such an extraordinary human side to this point .

The Meilleurs have achieved the holy grail of excellence while still being accessible. We can say that with them, the Meilleur (best in French) is as much on the plate as in their simple contact and above all their generosity and their sense of sharing. They are serene people who shine and work as a family and their entire team is in this spirit.

Let's not forget the 'ladies in the shadows' without whom this setting would not have the same glow. The places are so warm that we readily dream of being at home, in the middle of the mountains, in the maze of corridors, lounges and frescoes of this comfortable chalet with discreet luxury without ostentation. Every decorative element, every piece of furniture is in its right place (no designer chairs here). As for the Spa, by paying homage to its territory, it invites relaxation and the abolition of time.

La Bouitte is beyond fashion and unlike anything known. The cuisine is rooted in the reality of its region, modern but not crazy, unique, precise, complex, without ever falling into the superficial or the excessive. There is no search for an effect: we are in the being. What René and Maxime are, transpires in their dishes. A seemingly simple dish can be memorable. As for the breakfast, which makes us dream of the child that sleeps in each of us, it is the best that we have had to taste in our life. A fairy tale for all the senses.”

“if we do this job, it to make an ephemeral moment unforgettable”.

René & Maxime Meillon

NOTHING BUT EMOTION!

It is with these terms, addressed to the Michelin Guide, that a client describes the emotion he felt at La Bouitte after discovering our House. Words which reflect the philosophy of life and work of the Meilleur family.

« A supernatural experience in the world of three Michelin stars. We find in La Bouitte what we did not dare to imagine: true quality in all its simplicity and its origins. The flavours are there, authentic and pure. Everything is shown to its best: the product, the presentation, the know-how, the attitude to life. There is so much to say ... The spirit of the place is respected as accurately as possible and every employee is at the service of the customer who, himself, feels unique. All my senses were solicited, filling me with positive energy, and a nurtured and looked after feeling. I left as light and happy as when I was young, with that carelessness that one has as a child and that our memory has tidied away. I was torn between the desire to share this experience or to keep this corner of paradise a secret. Enjoying all this gentleness, sown in the moments of each event, made me touch heaven with my fingertips. One goes from surprise to surprise much to the delight of our taste buds, our eyes and our childhood memories. There is so much sensitivity here. A big THANK YOU to René and Maxime Meilleur for their availability, their listening, their love of cooking and hospitality that reigns supreme here. The hotel is of the same standard as the restaurant and the image of its owners who have been able to highlight the history of the place by sharing it with its guests in a moving complicity.»

2003 - 2023 : 20 YEARS OF MICHELIN GUIDE STARS

The 7th February 2023 will mark 20 years that La Bouitte has stars in the Michelin Guide. Their 1st star in 2003, the 2nd in 2003. Then the 3rd star in 2015, an historic first for a restaurant in the Savoy. The Meilleurs ("best" in English) have never lived up to their name so well ! A recognition that has given them the natural status of ambassadors for the Savoy. René and Maxime Meilleur, an incredible story of an enthusiastic self-taught father and son partnership. Away from the trends, they have created a new art of cooking and hosting, making their House really unique.

A WONDERFUL AND ORIGINAL STORY

Son of a cabinet-maker and farmer, in 1976, at the age of 26, René purchased a potato field at an altitude of 1502m on the edge of the pretty, yet isolated, village of Saint Marcel, dominating Saint Martin de Belleville. With his wife Marie-Louise, they created "La Bouitte", "small house" in the local patois. It is situated in a preserved corner of paradise in the Vanoise mountain range, at the entrance to the biggest ski area in the world: Les 3 Vallées. In the beginning René and Marie-Louise served fondues and local cooking.

What a long way they've come since then! With creativity and common sense, they have anticipated and created new trends. In 1981, a memorable dinner at Paul Bocuse's restaurant triggered René and Marie-Louise into realising what their dream was. Passionate about their profession, they moved in the direction of « haute cuisine ».

The arrival of their son Maxime in 1996, gave a new impulse to the business. Ex French junior team biathlon athlete, he draws strength from the values of sport: endurance and the surpassing of oneself. Progressively he is pushing the brigade towards a quest for the absolute.

In 2000, his older sister Sophie joined the adventure for ten years, participating in the progressive creation of 15 bedrooms and suites, full of charm. The whole family (including partners) have used a huge amount of energy to move mountains and build this chalet, stone by stone, year after year until it has become this unique sanctum of culinary and oenological experiences.

A HOUSE OF HEARTS CREATING A MOUNTAIN OF EMOTIONS

La Bouitte is an amazing place where opposites find their place together and where one lives incredible experiences. A place where one can enjoy the biggest ski area in the world, yet also roam around one of the most beautiful parts of the Vanoise National Park (the different summits, passes and natural sites in the valley total 18 stars in the green Michelin Guide!). In a cocoon evoking the Eternal Savoy, La Bouitte is above all out of this world and out of this time. This ancestral authenticity, the return to the origins of the Savoy are an inexhaustible source of inspiration, yet one which hasn't stopped René and Maxime being at the cutting edge of modern cuisine. The Chefs never stop renewing their manuscript, by subliming their childhood souvenirs. They compose a cuisine dedicated to nature, a hymn to the culinary tradition of their valley, lakes, and mountains. « The House and our dishes are like us: a teasing cuisine, full of finesse, which wake up the Savoyard culinary patrimony by a real tribute to it".

But even more, the "Meilleurs" along with their 58 employees and their guests, coming from 65 countries, form a huge family, united by an empathy and an incredibly rare loyalty. A proximity, a touching sincerity, which makes La Bouitte – as Gilles Pudlowski so rightly wrote – a « House of hearts ». Around vibrant food-wine marriages, between the quest for excellence and simplicity, the "Meilleurs" are excited by a common philosophy: the delight of passing on and sharing, giving Savoyard dishes a singular interpretation, and, in particular, making the universal emerge. Hotel guests, even more than visiting guests, completely forget their day-to-day life and live, intensely, a moment of levitation, a return to what is essential in life.

THE MICHELIN STAR ASCENT

René and Maxime Meilleur are the only duo, father and son, to be awarded all their stars together, from the first to the third.

In complete agreement, René and Maxime Meilleur recognise that the 1st star, earned in 2003, was difficult to obtain as the Vallée was not yet the gastronomic area that it is today. "The 1st star was the start of a wonderful adventure for a cook and the whole village, an incredible spotlight on our House. But we had to wait until 2008 and the 2nd star to reach the next stage and offer a cuisine that is really the image of us."

The 3rd star is the realisation of a dream, the fruit of 40 years hard work. It is the first time in the history of French gastronomy that a father - son team obtain together their 1st, 2nd and then 3rd Michelin star. As Maxime explains: "With my father, it's as if we have reached the top of the mountain and can now admire the amazing view. A new life has started. With the desire and possibility of going even further, to deliver a cuisine rooted in our Alpine heritage and to present magnificent, and often little-known products to our guests."

By attaining the most beautiful star in their lives, 2015 will remain for them and their family, an exceptional year. Hand in hand, René and Maxime Meilleur also celebrated the title of "Chefs of the year" in 2015 as well as Maxime's 40th birthday.

Since then, the investments have accelerated. All the components of the House (including the restaurant, hotel and Spa) are in total coherence and create an irrevocable and unique identity. (See the evolution of the hotel and the Spa on page 96).

LA BOUITTE, A LIVING HERITAGE COMPANY

Since summer 2020, La Bouitte in Saint Martin de Belleville is labelled "Living Heritage Company". A mark of recognition awarded by the "Institut National des Métiers d'Art", which distinguishes emblematic French companies with an excellence in artisan or industrial know-how and who carry high a strong identity heritage. Its criteria are the mastery of a complex and rare know-how, high technicality, and an attachment to a territory. Behind this distinction hides the unlikely saga of a family (the Meilleur), the passion, generosity, humility, and hard work of an entire team.

A three-star House is even more touching, as it draws on a natural and cultural heritage, delivering a unique interpretation of it. At La Bouitte, soul, artistic sense and the quest for perfection come together in a spirit of simplicity and truth. René and Maxime Meilleur, father and son, are true autodidacts. Far from any code, they freely create their own score. Their credo: to pass on their love of the mountains, starting with the Belleville Valley - the largest ski area in the world with Les 3 Vallées - but also a largely unspoiled territory at the gates of the Parc de la Vanoise.

A world in itself, an art of living which unveils the Alpine Savoy

If René and Maxime's mountain culinary repertoire is unique in its delicacy, hidden complexity, and interaction with nature, they have also created a world of their own. From dining rooms to lounges, from the 15 personalized rooms of the ***** Relais & Châteaux hotel to the Spa, all is in harmony, everything has meaning. Through their artisanal actions, over 40 years, the Meilleur family has built this dream chalet with their own hands. A warm setting for a rare heritage of popular art and Savoyard decorative art from the 17th century to the present day. Precious furniture, paintings, sculptures, superb collections of pottery and old bells, agricultural objects, fabrics (Arpin spinning mill) make the House endearing and alive. A voluntarily maze ! At La Bouitte, natural, gastronomic, cultural and architectural heritage form an unimaginable alchemy.

Out of this world, out of this time, La Bouitte has created an art of living, which draws its roots from an ancestral authenticity, never ceasing to reinvent itself. With an incredible sense of detail, it embodies luxury, an artistic dimension of disarming simplicity and kindness.

EVENTS

Like all arts, « haute cuisine » is a language. A quest for the beautiful and the good is its aim. It allows guests to enter a specially created universe. But the purpose goes far beyond this. Through the prism of the kitchen and their House, everyday René and Maxime deliver their vision of life, the world, and their territory. By being deeply rooted in this magical Vanoise, immaculately white in winter, bucolic with dazzling greens in summer, their open-mindedness and empathy push them to create links with the best producers, winegrowers, artists, and artisans in all fields of creation.

Events are key moments for self-analysis, opening up the field of possibilities, dialogue or even confrontation with other sensibilities from all artistic languages. Since 2004, La Bouitte has become a haven for food and wine lovers, bringing together epicureans from all over the world for oenological evenings full of unique emotional and educational significance. The temptation was great to go even further!

Imagine total Art, by merging several artistic languages. This is such a crazy challenge, and so demanding, that it could seem like a sweet dream. And yet, it was made reality by the Meilleurs and Ophélie Gaillard on 29th July 2021, and at a probably unprecedented level. The success was such that it leads us to pursue this quest.

René and Maxime with Ophélie Gaillard

DINNER CONCERT IN A THREE STAR MICHELIN RESTAURANT: A WORLD PREMIERE, MARKING THE START OF A NEW ERA IN THE FUSION OF ARTISTIC LANGUAGES

Since summer 2021, on the last Thursday in July, La Bouitte has opened the Tarentaise Baroque Music Festival. It must be said that the Belleville Valley - with its 36 churches and chapels including the superb Notre Dame de la Vie Sanctuary of (dating from the 17th century and very close to La Bouitte) - is a Mecca of Alpine Baroque. This heritage has deeply marked René and Maxime, to the point of dedicating one of the dining rooms to it.

It is without doubt the first time that artists of such a high calibre will play together, putting themselves to the test to create, together, a real musical, culinary and oenological journey. On 29th July 2021, along with Pascale Clément (cello) and Raphael Bonavita (baroque guitar, theorbo), Ophélie Gaillard – one of the greatest cellists of our times – kindly led us on this 5 senses Odyssey. The musical theme was the Savoy at a crossroads of the beginning of the 18th century.

On 28th July, 2022, it was the turn of the harpsichord player, Jean-Marc Aymes and the soprano, Maria Cristina Kiehr of the Concerto Soave to be in the spotlight. The theme of the concert was the Savoy as a land of passage. A passage between Italy and France, a passage from one culture to another, a dialogue between traditions and heritage. In harmony with René and Maxime Meilleur, Maria Cristina Kiehr, Argentinian and great traveller, and Jean-Marc Aymes, nourished by the sun of his native South, developed a Franco-Italian musical journey made up of passages, exchanges, emotions, where the musical swirls respond to the tastes and flavours of the two chefs' unique gastronomy.

The next date is planned for 27th July 2023 (programme information to come).

THE CHALLENGES OF DINNER - CONCERTS

René and Maxime Meilleur, their brigade and team of sommeliers create, as an extension to the musical journey, a real sensory (taste, touch, smell ...) and essential (quest for meaning, spirit) voyage. Meditative music calls for cerebral dishes. Lively music goes with dishes full of depth. From finesse to strength, from silky to carnal, from double piano to triple forte, from meditation to jubilation, from the art of silence and slowness to jubilant virtuosity, from immediate pleasure to spiritual and transcendent heights .... music, culinary subjects, and great wines working together both in harmony and confrontation to forge a total art.

The opening of the concert & aperitif then at the end of the evening the concert finale & mignardises will be taken on the terrace overlooking the forest and the surrounding mountains. The heart of the dinner – a concert which will take place in the three-star René & Maxime Meilleur restaurant. A great moment of pleasure, but also a real initiatory approach.

René and Maxime Meilleur have discovered a real “conducting” gift, managing to bring together musicians, kitchen staff, restaurant staff and around forty extraordinarily attentive guests, able to taste the culinary creations from 7 p.m. to 1 a.m. With full concentration and total attention to both the music and culinary art.

The musicians taste each dish a few minutes before the guests. They then settle in the heart of the restaurant, while the dishes are being served. All the guests start to taste the dishes in a synchronized way when the music starts. And in a religious silence. The musicians consider the emotion that they, themselves, felt when tasting the dish, expressing this in their interpretation. If a musical work includes several movements, the corresponding dish follows the breaks in rhythm and the atmosphere changes. It can be thought of in several services or reveal hidden elements. It can also take on a new dimension with the change of a musical movement by immediately adding an element such as a juice, a seasoning or a product that shifts the balance of taste.

THE OENOLOGICAL EVENINGS : MAGICAL MOMENTS

Since the initiative « Les Vins au sommet » organised by La Bouitte in 2004 and 2005, we know that food & wine tastes best in the mountains (see page 92)

The passion for wine has been part of the Meilleur family's life for over 40 years, which explains why La Bouitte has one of the best cellars in the Alps (1001 references, 3000 including those in the ageing cellar). 4 decades of research, meetings over many vineyards. Naturally, the desire was born to create events which would be incomparable experiences, real culinary and oenological journeys, and a laboratory of ideas to imagine the future.

Since 2012, once a month (5 evenings in the winter and 3 in the summer), La Bouitte gives "carte blanche" to an exceptional wine grower, who gives a magical interpretation to his unique and sophisticated "terroir". The challenge is to convince the wine grower to offer guests 7 to 10 wines which have marked his life, and about which there is a real story to share (specific climatic conditions, a stylistic evolution of the Domaine, a miraculous wine that has only been produced once). Certain bottles can even be considered a little bit of France's historical heritage. By their rarity and their venerable age (regularly vintages back to the 1930s), these evenings are a unique opportunity of a lifetime to taste these wines. And even though their prices are often out of reach, La Bouitte has chosen to offer them free of charge to guests, so that these evenings are accessible to everyone.

Every evening is a meeting at the summit which necessitates up to 4 years preparation. Once the list of wines has been finalised, the real work of René and Maxime Meilleur starts. The aim is to give the wines and the cuisine a superior, unexpected dimension, with the fusion of two complementary creative and artistic approaches, which reinforce and pull together mutually. How can a wine be transcended, lengthened by a culinary composition and vice versa? Fusion, dialogue or confrontation of the elements will follow each other with each different food-wine association.

The Chefs create the dishes to order, often for the first time, sometimes based on products that aren't even part of their repertory but which take on their full dimension when associated with the chosen wine. This is why these evenings are a real laboratory of ideas. Participants live a real-life experiment. The kitchen and restaurant teams are like tightrope walkers: on a wire, in the quest of the ultimate emotion. And certain creations, certain food/wine associations ring out like revelations and become future « classics » of La Bouitte, after a supplementary time to mature.

Guests realise that they participate in a creative act. From 19h30 until often late at night, they have the rare opportunity to talk directly and in a personal way with one of the most successful winemakers in the world, who transmits his passion as he passes from table to table changing his approach to adapt to the different profiles of the guests. The Chefs explain how they imagined their menu. Well-known wine critics (Michel Bettane, Bernard Burtschy, Marc Lagrange) also join in these exchanges. The ambience is relaxed and warm: it is a privilege to share this out of this world and out of time happiness. These evenings delight not only the enlightened amateur, who has travelled thousands of kilometres to taste the wines of which he has dreamt for such a long time, but also beginners wishing to enjoy an emotionally rich experience. All the participants (including about forty guests) know that it isn't just « one more event », but a suspended, unique moment that will potentially mark their life. When the magic operates, these evenings, non-reproducible, create relationships and unforgettable memories. It is not surprising that the guests are more and more loyal, with some even attending almost all the rendezvous.

PROGRAMME FOR THE WINTER 2022-2023 OENOLOGICAL EVENINGS

15/12/2022 : DOMAINE HUET (VOUVRAY, LOIRE VALLEY)

What a pleasure to welcome Sarah Hwang, Owner of this legendary Domaine, which has, for decades, been producing some of the greatest white wines, with a full range from dry to sweet. Only magic can be the result of marrying these wines to René and Maxime's cuisine, as there is a natural convergence. 3 singular Vouvray terroirs will be honoured. The Le Mont, rich in flint, creates mineral, ample and fine wines. The Haut Lieu, on south-facing clay-limestone soil, offers tenderness, iodized flavours and the energy of the fruit. Finally, The Clos du Bourg, dominating the church and the Loire, combines fabric, fullness, and noble uprightness. 9 wines on the programme. After the radiant and refined bubbles of the 2014 Sparkling wines and 2009 Reserve, the magnum 2007 Mont Sec will dazzle with its cascade of flavours, its sap and minerality. In Demi-Sec the 2008 Le Mont, vibrant, and 2014 Clos du Bourg, energetic, testify to the great balance between tenderness and tension. 4 sweet wines served in magnums to explore the highest spheres of taste and spirit, with The 1985 Haut-Lieu Moelleux starting with Le Mont 2015 followed by the 1985 Clos du Bourg - of indescribable purity -, and finally 1995 Constance with its endless length in the mouth.

11/01/2023 : CHÂTEAU SAINT COSME (GIGONDAS, RHÔNE VALLEY)

In this oh so endearing territory at the foot of the Dentelles de Montmirail, a stone's throw from the great Châteauneuf du Pape, the Château de Saint Cosme expresses both the plenitude of the South of the Rhône Valley, the Provençal soul, and the call of the Mediterranean. On a Gallo-Roman winemaking site, the Barruol family, over 15 generations, has been keeping it alive since 1490! Louis, brilliant President of his appellation, will share with us, in 9 wines, the essence of 3 exceptional terroirs, with century-old Grenache vinified in whole harvests. On limestone marls, Le Claux (2007 in magnum) has an almost Burgundian character, full of bouquet, finesse and freshness. Magical, impregnated with thyme, rosemary, elderberry, broom, and black fruits growing near the planted vines of Clairette, Le Poste (2006 in magnum) touches us with its intensity and refinement. Finally, Hominis Fides (2005 in magnum) between power and tenderness, produces deep and enigmatic wines. Not forgetting 2010 Valbelle in magnum, with its nuances of chocolate and pencil lead, the 1999 Gigondas in magnum that defies time, as well as a trilogy of delicious, sunny, and expressive whites, from 2010 Poste to 2020 Hominis Fides.

22/03/2023 : CHAMPAGNE BÉRÊCHE & SONS (LUDES)

A family business since 1847, with an increasingly remarkable recent history, its nature-friendly viticulture creates wines with character. With a dominant Champagne of vinosity on Pinots Noirs and Pinots Meuniers, between maturity and freshness, it expresses, with probity, the identity of each of its terroirs. Precise and accomplished, Le Brut Réserve already sets the tone. Campania Remensis rosé 2018 is an invitation full of sensuality entering further into the universe. To the North of Ludes, the white 2016 Les Monts Fournois Monopole Côteaux Champenois is chalky, ample, and tense. Les Beaux Regards Blanc de blancs 1er Cru 2016 is tonic without departing from a certain tenderness. For a 1st edition, Mailly Grand Cru 2013, with ferrallitic soils, expresses the nobility, personality, and energy of long-keeping Pinots Noirs. A great wine with a slender palate and very beautiful bitterness, from floral to black fruit and citrus. A perfect balance between Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, Cran 1er Cru 2008, served in a magnum, is an emblematic cuvée of the Domaine, saline, with very good length and density. Not forgetting the sublime terroirs of Cramant 2016 on the Côte des Blancs and Ay 2014, the only Grand Cru in the Marne Valley. An educational journey which helps us to better understand the range of possibilities in Champagne. Finally, Raphaël and Vincent Bérêche grant us the privilege of discovering, in advance, "Une Champagne 2014", a rarity (1000 bottles produced), the fruit of 20 years of selection and plot identification..

19/04/2023 : DOMAINE VINCENT LEFLAIVE (PULIGNY-MONTRACHET, BOURGOGNE)

Historical estate (since 1717) among the most prestigious in Burgundy, Vincent Leflaive offers one of the most accomplished, crystalline, and racy expressions of Chardonnay on first-rate soils with a limestone imprint. A pioneer in the development of biodynamics, with an egg-shaped cellar created in 2012, his kingdom is the famous village of Puligny-Montrachet with a mosaic of exceptional terroirs. Pierre Vincent invites us to discover 8 cuvées. The aromatic Mâcon Verzé "les Chênes" 2020 is pleasant without lacking in substance. The Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru "Le Clavoillon" 2018 owes its opulence and its striking material to its clays. Puligny 1er Cru "les Pucelles" affirms its natural class. In 2017, freshness, slender charm and vibratory concentration come together. In 2001, the patina of time confers an intoxicating spicy, floral, and mineral complexity. 2 grands crus follow in 2006: Bâtard-Montrachet is of a purity that commands admiration, between richness and precision. Chevalier-Montrachet offers additional tension for sublime transparency. Finally, we will discover 2 new cuvées vinified by the Domaine in red in 2018: the Pommard 1er Cru "les Arvelets" and the Corton Grand Cru "les Grandes Lolières".

UNIQUE EXPERIENCE: THE INFLUENCE OF ALTITUDE AND THE DEPTHS OF A LAKE ON THE AGEING AND TASTE OF WINE IN BARRELS AND BOTTLES

Since 2004, the country's leading experts (winegrowers, scientists, wine critics), René and Maxime Meilleur - passionate about oenology - have analysed the influence of altitude on the ageing and tasting of wines. The conclusions drawn are spectacular. Wines stored at altitude turn out to be denser, longer, purer, and more harmonious than those stored on the plain. They offer more elegant aromas and more blooming fruit. And their ageing, being slower, (subject to correcting the humidity), mean that the wines gain in complexity (see more details on page 92).

In January 2020, René and Maxime imagined a new and unique experience. They transported a 225-litre oak barrel in a piste groomer up to their mountain restaurant Le Bouche à Oreille - situated at an altitude of 2,700 meters - in the 3 Vallées ski area.

An experiment carried out with Michel and Fabien Brotons - father & son - from Clos de l'Ours. A young, promising biodynamic estate in Cotignac in the Var (Provence). The objective was to confirm the effect of high altitude on the taste evolution of the cuvée of high-end red wine Ursus (90% Syrah, 10% Mourvèdre) by comparing them 2 years later, with the same wine aged in other similar barrels at the wine estate, at an altitude of 230 meters.

At the start of 2022, the wine was manually bottled by a tasting. Michel Bettane, renowned as the most famous French wine critic, will do us the honour of joining us, bringing all his skills to the learning process. The wines aged at altitude confirmed an additional fullness compared to those aged in the plains at the Domaine, with more purity, a more chiseled and precise side. Some of these bottles are intended for the cellar of La Bouitte, Bouche à Oreille and Simple & Meilleur. The other bottles continue their ageing at the Bouche à Oreille to be marketed by the Domaine in 2023. Building on the success of this extraordinary operation, Clos de l'Ours is repeating the operation for the last vintage of Ursus (2021). A new barrel was transported by a piste machine to the Bouche à Oreille at the last snowfall of spring.

A new adventure also began, namely the ageing of the 2019 "Cœur d'Aprémont" cuvée by Jean-Claude Masson - one of the greatest Savoyard white wines - tested on 4 sites: at an altitude of 400m, at a depth of 50m underwater in Lake Annecy off Sévrier, in the plain at the Domaine at 320m, at La Bouitte at 1502m and @at the Bouche à Oreille at 2700m. Here again, it will be a first to simultaneously compare the effects that different altitudes (from 50m underwater to 2700m) have on the same vintages. From autumn 2022 and for an indefinite period, we will follow the taste evolution of this emblematic wine of our Savoyard territory at these 4 altitudes.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS

AN ARTIST'S BLADE

Stéphane Thomat, originally from Toulouse, joined his grandmother's family home located near a forge in Les Chapelles near Bourg Saint Maurice in 2009. While employed in digital communication at La Plagne, he quickly understood that his dream was elsewhere...

In the open air, motivated by his passion for daggers and other medieval blades, he took the decision to give free rein to his overflowing creativity, and his Mountain Forge reached out to him. It was in his hands to follow his destiny.

He created his first knives, learnt how to work the wood for the handles, leather for the straps and kept going. Then he took a major turn by merging his desire for nature and the life of a blacksmith. In 2018, while delivering a shop in Bourg Saint Maurice, he met chef Maxime Meilleur, who, touched by his work, invited him to discover the world of La Bouitte. He met Chef René. With the desire to move forwards at their sides, Stéphane Thomat embarked on the adventure and the creation of signature "haute-couture" knives, endorsed by Maxime's words "The craftsmanship, the human-side and the art of living, Stéphane represents all of this at the same time. His knives really have a soul, a different vibration. »

The blacksmith's story is similar to the one that the Meilleur family tells. And as usual, with each exceptional meeting beautiful projects are written. It took more than a year to present the perfect prototype, 9 months to make it and give life to this shared project, full of experience and generosity, a real lifetime tribute... And the result is there, in the words of Maxime: "The knife bears a claw of the cross of Savoy, incisions representing the mountains and its 3 valleys, the evocative foot of a chamois, and the very specific wood from our oak smokehouse's frame, symbol of our cooking profession. It's a real pleasure to bring our unique territory directly to our table".

EXTENSION OF THE CHALET TO CREATE A NEW BREAKFAST ROOM, A BAKERY AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF FOOD-WINE MATCHES

As every year, René and Maxime continue the construction of La Bouitte, like a lifetime's work. The « Berger's breakfast » is one of the most outstanding culinary experiences that one can dream about (see page 103). To live this moment with even more comfort, the new rooms were inaugurated on 4th December 2021. In a very mountain spirit, with incredible woodwork - a magnificent mezzanine! - they offer a beautiful view of the valley and its mountains.

This 140m<sup>2</sup> extension over 3 floors, houses a perfectly equipped bakery on the ground floor, bread already being almost a religion at La Bouitte. The House has made a speciality out of its food-wine-bread matches, a specific bread created for each culinary creation. Even the holidaymakers and inhabitants of the Belleville Valley can enjoy the exceptional quality of this bakery, as some of the breads are on sale to take away at the Simple & Meilleur Bistro.

« SIMPLE & MEILLEUR », THE MOUNTAIN BISTRO WITH A GOURMAND BIB IN THE MICHELIN GUIDE CREATED, AT THE END OF 2022, A WINE BAR AND SNACKING CELLAR

This is the outcome of years of thought which came to fruition on 15th December 2018: the creation of an authentic mountain Bistro in Saint Martin de Belleville. A place of sharing and gustatory discovery, very complementary to La Bouitte, which has obtained the Bib Gourmand in the Michelin Guide since 2020.

René and Maxime Meilleur have chosen to install themselves on the central square of the quarter of up-market chalets « Case Blanche », (the name of an area in the nearby wild Vallée des Encombres). A marvellous position at the bottom of the pistes and at the start of the walking paths, dominating the village resort.

NEW

Simple & Better" is above all a human story. Manon Moleins is an outstanding director, with an innate, sparkling sense of hospitality. This winter rejoins one of the greatest sommeliers in our country, who officiated at La Bouitte from 2013 to 2018 before returning to his native Vendée: Florian Bagourd.

With René and Maxime Meilleur, this winter at the entrance to the chalet and on the lower floor they are excited to create a Wine Bar, a real gourmet cellar for both on-site tastings and take-away sales. A lively place from 4 p.m. to midnight, offering tapas-style bites to eat, revisited in a Savoyard spirit: charcuterie, including ham home-cooked in hay, the local Pâté des Belleville from Gaston Eybord, or exceptional products from Stéphane Milleret, tasty terrines, Gillardeau oysters, smoked whitefish, bone marrow, flank steak to enjoy with your fingers, mini-fondues, ripened cheeses (Beaufort d'alpage, Tome des Bauges, Persillé de Tignes, Bleus de Bonneval and Termignon...) presented in large pieces, dried fruit. The warm bar & lounge, in a mountain decoration punctuated by beautiful old wooden tables, make the House a real meeting place.

200 wine references both accessible and high-end, including a very fine selection of wines by the glass, reinforces the conviviality and interest of the place. The Pays de Savoie (Cevins, Arbin, Chignin, Apremont or Jongieux) is in the spotlight and a sharp selection of signature wines and singular terroirs is made up of all regions from the Alpine Arc to the whole of France.

On the upper floor, guests will find le 70 cover restaurant (50 covers on the this floor and 20 covers on the mezzanine above). The menu has been conceived by the 2 triple starred Michelin Chefs, with the help of 4 cooks and 5 restaurant staff, to honour the best traditional products in the Savoy, and to bring back to life Meilleur family ancestral recipes : in addition to the signature dishes indicated below, cold meats and cheeses from the valley, the Vanoise and the neighbouring mountain ranges, truite fario cooked entirely in the oven/ fresh butter and slices of lemon, raclette made with uncooked cow or goat's milk. In the winter pot au feu, roast lamb/sauteed grenailles potatoes, melt-in-the-mouth pork belly/roasted vegetables/ wild thyme, bilberry tart, crème brûlée, chocolate mousse served with a ladle, steamed île flottante, crème anglaise/caramel sauce, brioches...

The cuisine is voluntarily simple, tasty, generous and above all, good ! Our motto : well-presented dishes that honour the Savoy, value for money - fair price, with an innate sense of hospitality.

LA BOUITTE PARTNER AND AMBASSADOR OF EAU DE BONNEVAL

Eau de Bonneval, (Bonneval water) has finally been bottled. It is at the end of a journey of 2000 years in the heart of the alpine rocks from which it springs naturally in Bonneval, a place near Bourg-Saint-Maurice in Tarentaise in Savoie. Recently distributed in the Savoy, since 2022 its two founders, Jean Moueix (co-owner of the mythical Château Pétrus in Bordeaux) and David Merle, engineer of the Ponts et Chaussées, have chosen the Chef Maxime Meilleur as the ambassador of their brand.

Having become a symbol of our heritage, Eau de Bonneval offers you the experience of drinking the mountain in its pure state. Its strong character promotes a reconnection with nature, thanks to its purification properties. A sip of this water is almost like staying in a Himalayan ashram! Sold as an exceptional product, with real density on the palate, tactile significance and a taste profile that respects the integrity of the signature of a great chef, it was logical that Eau de Bonneval found its natural place alongside the creations of René and Maxime Meilleur. Notably the Lightly cooked trout, a superb ode to the Savoy. The most audacious will integrate Eau de Bonneval into their recipe before enjoying a perfect marriage of food-water.

THE «LA BÈLA VYA» SPA: TREATMENTS AND AN EXCLUSIVE COSMETIC BRAND, IN CONSTANT EVOLUTION

The « La Bèla Vya » spa, "a great life" in the Belleville Valley patois, is not like any other. It is the natural continuation of the soul of the House, of the natural patrimony and cultural environment and even that of the culinary signature of the Chefs René and Maxime Meilleur.

From the cosmetic brand "Meilleur Nature" to the exclusive treatments created especially for them, well-being takes on an unknown dimension in this dream chalet. Spa uses original techniques of well-being, which put the Savoyard "terroir" in the spotlight. Loyal guests praise the Marie's bath with milk and mountain honey. To erase the frost of winter, there's nothing like hay, spring water and aromatic herbs. Like the Solan, this steam bath with hay cut from the mountain pastures, which releases voluptuous alpine scents. In the moonlight, with an amazing view of the surrounding illuminated mountains, the feeling of well-being is unique. Suspended time, sweetness of life ...

From 2005, a first Spa was created following this philosophy. In December 2016, a new Spa was born, one which has continued to improve and expand its offer ever since.

To discover its philosophy, the aquatic area, the treatments, and the Meilleur Nature cosmetics brand, see page 104 and the Treatment menu on the website: <http://www.la-bouitte.com/hotel-spa/spa-savoie.html>

THE STORY OF A FAMILY OF BUILDERS

The “Meilleur’s” saga in a few key dates

The Valley’s origins: a busy route linking the Tarentaise and Maurienne valleys, La Vallée des Belleville started its development 2000 years before Jesus Christ. Its name comes from the Latin “villa” meaning domain, and “bella”, underlining its size – 230 km<sup>2</sup> –.

1950: René Meilleur is born in Saint Marcel, one of the hamlets of Saint Martin de Belleville. His family lived off farming and working with wood (cabinet makers). Les 3 Vallées ski area was created in the 1960s.

1975: Maxime Meilleur is born in Saint Marcel.

1976: seeing skiers descending off piste to their village, René and Marie-Louise acquired a potato field and, on 4th December, opened their restaurant “La Bouitte”. They served a delicious Savoyard cuisine, simple and generous.

Années 1980: “a gustatory shock” during a dinner at Paul Bocuse’s restaurant in 1981 and the creation of a ski resort in Saint Martin de Belleville in 1984, encouraged René to evolve towards a more elaborate and creative cuisine. La Bouitte became one of those addresses that is passed on discretely from gourmet to gourmet in Les 3 Vallées.

1996: at the end of his career in the French Junior biathlon team, their son Maxime arrived. He came to help René prepare a “crème anglaise” and caught the cooking bug so much that he has never left. In 1998, his partner Delphine Dagonet joined the team as Maître d’Hôtel. La Bouitte does all it can to represent the best that the Savoy produces.

2000: Creation of the hotel: 8 bedrooms and suites with charm. Obtained the «Clés d’Or de la gastronomie» (Golden keys of gastronomy) in the Gault & Millau Guide.

2002: « Aubergiste de l’année » (Innkeeper of the year) Trophy in the Pudlo France. Guide Oscar Meilleur is born.

2003: 1st Michelin star

2004: First oenological experiments to analyse the influence of altitude on the ageing and taste of wines.

2005: creation of the natural product based spa, « La Béla Vya ».

2008: 2nd Michelin star. Calixte Meilleur is born.

2012: Création des soirées œnologiques, des événements au rayonnement international.

2011 - 2015: Maxime purchased, from René’s brother, the next door house which he renovated. Expansion and move up-market of La Bouitte (new kitchen, dining rooms and “table d’hôtes”, 2 lounges, 8 supplementary bedrooms and suites). In the restaurant, guests now have the choice between 4 ambiances and décors: the terrace with its view of the mountain pastures and summits, the main dining room with its mountain spirit, the “table d’hôtes” open onto the incredible ballet in the kitchen, and the new Baroque room, a tribute to the Valley’s artistic heritage.

2015: The supreme recognition, 3rd star in the Michelin Guide. Followed by the title “Chefs of the Year” awarded by “Le Chef” magazine.

2016: La Bouitte becomes a Relais & Châteaux member. René Meilleur is made «chevalier of the Légion d’honneur». Printing of the book « Les Meilleur à La Bouitte » by éditions Glénat.

2017: On the occasion of the 40th anniversary of the House, unprecedented investments were made. The hotel is classified 5 stars since this summer. Creation of a superb Mountain Nature Spa, the cosmetic range MEILLEUR Nature, and the perfume « 1502 m ».

A WHOLE FAMILY, UNITED AND COMPLEMENTARY

With their children, over the years René and Marie-Louise Meilleur have built the chalet of their dreams, sculpted the wood, and combined the most noble of the ancestral Savoyard materials (slate, stone ...). "Born hard-workers" and "in love" with their native Savoy, they are natural builders. With their own hands then have shaped La Bouitte, giving it a territorial anchor and solid roots.

The Chefs

René Meilleur

Self-taught creator of La Bouitte, 40 years of experience, creativity and good sense are the basis of his main aim: to transmit to his guests the treasures of the Savoy. René has never ceased from re-transcribing, in his own way, the gustatory memories of his childhood, and the ancestral culinary heritage of the Dukes of Savoy. And showing that over and above the superb ski areas, this region is the home of a passionate "terroir", and an authentic art of living.

Maxime Meilleur

Ex French junior team biathlon athlete, he has kept the endurance qualities and competitive spirit from his sporty past. His need to work, his rigour, his desire for excellence and sharing, encourage the whole team towards a search for the absolute. With its ardent temperament, his cooking astonishes by the economy of his gestures and the pureness of his compositions.

The women of the house

Marie-Louise Meilleur

Since 1976, René's wife has been the perfect Hostess. Her key words: attention, simplicity, generosity, professionalism, and authenticity. Her contribution is essential in the table art and decoration of the bedrooms.

Delphine Dagonet Meilleur

Maxime's wife and Maître d'hôtel since 1998. Her mission is to be the link between the guests and the chefs in the conception of the Carte Blanche menus. She remembers everyone's expectations and preferences which helps to increase guests' satisfaction each time they visit.

NATURE, GASTRONOMY AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT: A DEEPLY ROOTED WAY OF LIFE

Since its conception, La Bouitte has been the expression of the love that the Meilleur family has for its valley, Les Belleville at the gates of the Vanoise. Sustainable development, the preservation of nature, the sharing of this heritage, both natural and cultural, are in the genes of René and his wife Marie-Louise, his son Maxime, and his partner Delphine. They are the heart of their way of life.

In this immense Belleville Valley, the environment - by its beauty but also its harshness - imposes itself on man. To cultivate their steep and spread-out fields of potatoes, rye or oats, the peasants have always climbed up the land, which comes down from the mountain when it is cultivated. Without this hard work, the topsoil would have given way to stones. In order not to damage the fields, to preserve the thyme or the Meadowsweet, the shepherds bypass them by going over the embankments.

Newly married, René created La Bouitte in 1976 on a former potato field, which he traded for the renovation of the roof of a neighbour in the village. Joined by his son Maxime in 1996, between them, they have created a unique culinary repertoire, a true tribute to this nourishing nature so inspiring. Nature has always punctuated their life over the seasons. They love the contrasts. Shades of light. Temperature variations. A continual evolution of colours from the pristine white of snow to the pastoral symphony of summer. Alpine pastures, forests, lakes and rivers, and glaciers shape the immense landscapes around La Bouitte. Cultivated and wild products abound from spring through to autumn.

The chalet (from the hotel to the restaurant passing via the lounges) was built for the most part by the family themselves using traditional materials from the valley: hundred-year-old wooden planks from sheep-folds and mountain chalets, slate, Savoyard blue stone... They are sculpted and shaped by the Meilleurs to embellish them and integrate them into the setting of La Bouitte, as if they had always had their place there. Arpin fabrics, knives, pottery, tableware from local artisans, ancestral agricultural objects ... everything reveals the soul of this unique place. Over time, La Bouitte has become an irreplaceable testimony to Savoyard popular and decorative art.

In the kitchen, all the products are not only seasonal, but fresh. Exclusive partnerships have been established with local producers (fish from our Alpine lakes, meats from Savoyard breeds, vegetables, cheeses, fruits, wines, etc.). 80% are local (Savoy, notably Vanoise, and particularly the Belleville valley in summer). If René and Maxime allow themselves a few deviations to more distant terroirs, it is because their choices are driven by another force: essential encounters. If Gillardeau oysters or Eric Roy's vegetables are on the menu, it is because very deep friendships have been created, and nowhere else in France have René and Maxime found such products with such radiance, or taste. Alpine Savoy remains, however, the common thread of any experience at La Bouitte.

About fifty varieties of vegetables, mushrooms, fruits, and aromatic herbs are picked in summer in the meadows and the forest surrounding La Bouitte. Even rarer, René and Maxime have created a fishpond in which there are about a hundred trout. They are fished on demand for each table. Absolute freshness of the product is guaranteed, which contributes to great emblematic dishes.

The use of entire products, the Carte Blanche menu - which allows the adjustment of the construction of the dishes to avoid any waste - the home-made production of butter, bread, crozets, the creation of herbal teas and « eau de vie » with herbs and plants from the valley, water bottled on site to avoid the transport of mineral water, its use when it is not completely drunk by the guests as well as the collection of rainwater to water the garden, strict selective sorting... are all common sense gestures in favour of sustainable and responsible gastronomy.

Even the spa treatments and the House cosmetics brand (Meilleur Nature) use local products. Everything comes from the valley. And the installation of a laundry room allows all laundry to be washed on site.

Thus, far from any passing fashion, La Bouitte has been revealing, for over 4 decades, the soul of Alpine Savoy, the identities of the terroirs, and artisanal productions in all trades. Not only has it always taken care of the environment, but it is - more than ever with its guests - a passionate ambassador.

LA BOUITTE: THE HEART OF THE SAVOY

René and Maxime, father and son, share their love of their roots

AN HISTORICAL HERITAGE BETWEEN POPULAR SAVOYARD ART AND BAROQUE ART

In the Middle Ages and during the Renaissance, the village of Saint Martin de Belleville was an important passage between the Tarentaise and Maurienne valleys. It was part of the Savoy State, which, at the height of its reign, spread from Geneva to Nice and included the Piedmont and Sardinia.

The Commune's historical heritage (22 picturesque hamlets, 36 chapels and churches dating from the Middle Ages to the 18th Century) are a witness of its rich past. Notre Dame de la Vie, 1 km from La Bouitte, is one of the most renown sanctuaries in the Tarentaise. The monuments were redesigned in the Baroque period by Italian artists. This is why La Bouitte chose to create its 2nd dining room in this spirit.

The lounges and dining rooms, the 17 personalised bedrooms and the Spa are a showcase for Alpine regional decorative art. A successful combination of the soul and history of ancestral Savoy and modern-day comfort and technology.

A few examples of La Bouitte's heritage

- curtains and blankets from the Arpin wool mill in Séez (classified as an historical monument, 7th generation in the Tarentaise)
- grain cabinets, tables, stable chests, sculpted furniture, utensils and decorative objects from the 17th to 19th Century.
- collection of ancient bells from the prestigious Maison Chamoniarde Devouassoud ("les Clarines"), MLD and Simond
- antique plates, pottery from Yvoire (on the banks of Lake Geneva), Morzine and St Jorioz (on Lake Annecy).

La Bouitte is not encumbered: everything is harmonious, warm and luminous..

THE SAVOY: A RICH CULINARY HERITAGE WHICH IS BEING BORN AGAIN THROUGH THE CREATION OF A MOUNTAIN RECIPE CONSERVATORY

A great tradition for good cuisine, even aristocratic cuisine, existed up until the 19th Century in the Duchy of Savoy, much more refined and complex than the Savoyard specialities which the winter sports industry has, for a long time, served to tourists.

Amongst the specialities from this age: "niokis", soufflés, jugged meat, venison, entremets, zabaglione, "rissoles", and not forgetting the "gâteau de Savoie" (dating back to Amédée VI between 1343 and 1383). Numerous spices were also used: saffron (in stocks and "farçons"), cumin or dill... For proof of an ancestral culinary dynamism in the Savoy, one can study the book "Du fait de cuisine" written by Maître Chiquart, cook for the Duke of Savoy Amédée VIII, in 1420! This is one of the most ancient treaties of medieval gastronomy known to this day in Europe.

At the same time, a more popular and filling cuisine co-existed: "farçons", polenta (from 1770), "crozets" (small square pasta made from wheat or buckwheat flour)... Raclettes were eaten since the middle ages when the shepherds melted the summer cheese in the open air in the mountain pastures. But it's the Tomme that is the most ancient cheese in the Savoy. Mountain pasture milk is obviously emblematic of the culinary heritage.

Over the years, Savoyard cuisine became richer, the mountain passes, strategic posts for the commercial routes, helped in the exchanges between cultures. Potatoes ("tartifles") from America, rice (from the Piedmont), pasta, polenta as well as numerous spices almost unknown in France were largely consumed in the Savoy from the 18th Century onwards.

What better ambassador than René Meilleur to identify, describe and preserve mountain cuisine? The idea grew to create a Mountain Recipe Conservatory. The aim is to identify the culinary heritage from the olden days to the present day, to retrace the history of family products and recipes, and to introduce young chefs who use them as inspiration to create new paths. René has been the Conservatory's president since its creation in 2018. "In the mountains, we have a rather oral tradition of cooking. Everyone may have had their recipe book in a drawer, but most of the time the recipes weren't written down. The Conservatory's idea is to collect recipes from families and chefs, and group them together in a book that will become a reference for our cuisine, one that will describe both our products and the life we live. We have already collected a few complete notebooks and photocopies which were sent to us at La Bouitte where we are collecting these archives. Over and above the recipes, we are discovering a way of cooking personal to our mountains, in particular cooking with an open fire or on the corner of the stove and a tradition of simmering. Many dishes are similar to each other (rissoles, lamb stews, "la cruche" ...) which shows that here, there is a real separate identity here".

AN EXCEPTIONAL NATURAL SITE, A UNIQUE TERROIR FOR THE “MEILLEURS”

Located at the entrance to the largest ski area in the world (Les 3 Vallées), La Bouitte offers the paradox of a delicious serenity, seemingly in the middle of nowhere. The overwhelming mountain peaks, the peaceful pastures, and the surrounding forest dominate the garden, vegetable patch and magnificent terrace area. From the terrace, the view takes in the entire natural beauty of the valley of Les Encombres: a paradise for lovers of fauna, flora, vegetables, plants, and wild herbs.

The size of the “Belleville” valley (half of the 450 km<sup>2</sup> that make up the 3 Vallées) is such that only 5 % of the skiable area is developed. These immense virgin territories, the Encombres, Nant Brun and Lou Valleys, represent an inestimable and very identifiable local territory. It is from here, along with other emblematic Savoyard sites, that René and Maxime Meilleur get their daily inspiration. Complicit and complementary, they present you with a generous, subtle, and personal vision. Their cuisine is a tribute to a heritage reputed in the times of the Dukes of Savoy, progressively forgotten with the annexation by France in 1860, the rural exodus and then the development of white gold.

Since the 1990s, Savoyard gastronomy has regained the letters of its nobility. Every day, René and Maxime are at the search for what the Alps have best to offer, chosen from artisans whose products are full of sense and history.

Savoy products over the seasons:

butters, character-full hams, free range eggs, smooth polenta, local fish (féra, char and perch) from the Lakes Geneva and Bourget, yesteryear vegetables (ancient varieties of carrots, pumpkins), ceps, chanterelles, truffles, Tarentaise beef, deer, stag, little known cheeses (“sérac” from the Lou valleys, “beaufort” from Nant Brun, a “blue” from Termignon, “Persillé” from Tignes, sheep’s cheese from Serge Jay in Le Châtelard)... In the surrounding mountain pastures, there is an incredible abundance of fruit, fresh herbs, and wild plants: meadowsweet, wild garlic, gentian, goosefoot, sorb, bilberries, wild strawberries... Not forgetting the smooth Saint Marcel honey with its wonderful perfume, or the saffron.

EXCEEDING YOUR HIGHEST EXPECTATIONS, THE 3 VALLEES OFFERS YOU ALL THE PLEASURES OF THE MOUNTAINS

Saint-Martin de Belleville is an excellent example of the extraordinary development of winter sports resorts. The village was subject to the rural exodus with the industrial revolution down the valley and the very difficult living conditions in the mountains up until 1960. But in only 50 years the development has been incredible, with the creation of 3 complementary resorts in Les Menuires (in 1963), Val Thorens (in 1972), then St Martin de Belleville (in 1984). Les 3 Vallées was born in the 1960's: 600 km of pistes, 25 mountain peaks between 1,300 and 3,230 m. La Vallée des Belleville has become the world leader in terms of winter sports tourist visitors (more than a million skiers each season). And with its continual move upmarket since 1985, Saint Martin de Belleville, which has managed to preserve its village soul, attracts visitors looking not only for great skiing, but also for authenticity.

The possibilities are endless: a rich Baroque heritage, picturesque hamlets, the largest ski area in the world, a wide range of walks in unspoilt sites (the valleys of Les Encombres and Nant Brun, Col de la Lune, Lac du Lou ...), and countless activities and recreational facilities just 5 km away in Les Menuires, 14 km away in Val Thorens, and 40 km away in Méribel and Courchevel.

LES 3 VALLÉES COMBINES, LIKE NO OTHER PLACE, GASTRONOMY, WELL-BEING AND INCREDIBLE ALPINE PANORAMAS

Les 3 Vallées is well known for being the biggest ski area in the world. But it is also a magnificent destination for pedestrians, walkers or not, both in the winter and summer. From Saint Martin de Belleville to Courchevel, passing by the top of Tournère and its infinite pastures, the pretty village of Méribel - les - Allues then the Saulire, whose aspect reminds us of the Dolomites, a real odyssey offers itself to you. And all of this in complete comfort and without effort. Obviously, skiers and walkers can also enjoy this unequalled playground by skiing or walking the incredible number of itineraries and pistes.

On the way back, it is tempting to detour via Méribel - Mottaret, Le Roc des 3 Marches (where, in the winter, you will find the mountain restaurant - at 2700 m - La Bouche à Oreille managed by René MEILLEUR's sister and brother-in-law), followed by Les Menuires.

During this day, rich in memories, a unique succession of 17 gondolas and chairlifts allow you to discover the sumptuous countryside of the Vanoise, Mont Blanc and the Ecrins. A great occasion for a gastronomic pause at lunchtime, followed, perhaps, by a treatment at the Spa.

La Bouitte's concierge service can advise guests individually for this journey, by suggesting suitable pauses, cultural visits, lunchtime destinations, shopping ...

And, of course, those staying in Courchevel, Méribel, Val Thorens and Les Menuires are able to profit from this crossing to discover La Bouitte for lunch. Or even for a full visit with an evening and night at the hotel.

Perch, juice made from the grilled bones, vegetables and salicornia.

A CUISINE SIGNED “MEILLEUR”

A FOUR HANDED CUISINE, SUBTLE, COMPLEX AND TEASING

In the heart of ancestral Savoy, what a delight to discover the “Meilleur” signature. La Bouitte is a successful contrast between an authentic rustic setting and the quest for avant-garde cuisine and oenology. Its harmony and poetry owe much to René and, drawing from his experience as a biathlon athlete, Maxime has forged himself a sportsman's spirit with the need to work hard whilst economising effort. Between the perfectionist Maxime and the experienced poet René, the dialogue is permanent. Their entente is natural.

With their brigade, the self-taught duo pursues a quest: the perfect balance between tradition and modernity, between simplicity and elegance, and between precision and pushing the boundaries. They produce their personally carved and almost cheeky interpretation of the best local products. Their cuisine, caressing and fresh, is a tribute to nature's complexity and generosity.

Following their immediate aesthetic appeal, the compositions allow themselves to be discovered little by little. By playing with the textures, one by one the subtle associations of flavours are revealed. This teasing and precise cuisine, without any unnecessary artifice, invites questioning and offers an appreciation at several different levels. The complexity and virtuosity, mastered over the years, leaves the room for an impression of pureness, ease and balance.

EXAMPLE OF A SIGNATURE DISH, A HYMNE TO THE SAVOY :

Milk in all its states: meringue, jam, sorbet, biscuit...

Here is a dessert, purposely regressive, an irresistible return to one's childhood. René and Maxime's version of a Proust Madeleine. It is difficult to imagine that an ingredient as common as milk can be transcended to this point, becoming one of the peaks of gastronomy and refinement.

In the different hamlets around de Saint Martin de Belleville, several farmers continue an ancestral know-how, giving us the opportunity to rediscover the unique taste of milk from altitude bred cows, sheep, and goats.

From the conception of butter to the emblematic dish of Crozets through to the Spa treatments (Le bain de Marie with milk and honey from Saint Marcel), one can really say that milk is a part of the identity of La Bouitte. But it is in this signature dessert that it takes all its dimension. One dives into a symphony of light milk, between full fat and semi-skimmed cow's milk, sheep and goat yoghurt, milk powder in the heart of the meringue, farmhouse butter, and - the ultimate gourmandise - milk jam (also made from micro-filtered full fat cows milk for more flavour).

The genesis of this creation goes back to New Year's Eve 2010. René and Maxime MEILLEUR wanted to finish the meal with tones of immaculate white, a reminder of the snow enveloping the chalet. Their aim was to create an emblematic Savoyard dessert and to conclude this important meal on a fresh and subtle note.

This dish is a game of textures between the crispy biscuit and meringue and the unctuousness and tenderness of the mousse and sorbet. One discovers it little by little, with a succession of fleeting sensations.

This first attempt was a master stroke. Every day since this famous New Year's Eve, guests have not stopped asking for this new dessert, having heard about it from friends and family. « Milk in all its states » has since become a great classic of La Bouitte, even though it has been refined and reinvented over the seasons, it still has the same DNA. It is highly possible that it contributed to the 3rd Michelin star in 2015.

Stéphane Durand-Souffland, Le Figaro, 31st January 2015: «Milk in all its states» is a declaration of love to this nourishing fluid, a a white scaffolding with an overwhelming balance, a perfect declination of a technique which emerges as obvious. To start with there is this frosty disc, an ice-cream to which the goat's milk (or sheep's milk depending on the season) gives an irresistible note of tartness. Above are three little milky meringues. Underneath, a mousse of an infinite finesse which encloses an only delicately sweet sorbet. And it all lies on a crispy milk biscuit like a praline, and a slightly amber necklace of liquid milk jam fulfils the spell. This dessert, is a return to one's childhood, the concentrated milk that one sucked from a bottle (but better), a gustatory shade made of progressive moves towards an absolute gourmet pleasure.

THE BISCUIRON®, AN EXCLUSIVE TRIBUTE TO THE "BISCUIT DE SAVOIE"

Faced with the macaroon trend, René and Maxime Meilleur have invented a new cake concept, based on the local "Biscuit de Savoie". The pastry, gently worked with a spatula, is drawn into a curved pouch, and baked in a moderate oven for 10 minutes. Deliciously soft and melting, the Biscuiron is treated with great care as if it were a unique piece full of finesse. Let yourself be enchanted by its sensual flavours: "Gisèle" Orange blossom, Lemon basil Chantilly, Creamy icy mint, crunchy chocolate pearl ...

Glazed sweetbreads, Agria potato, horseradish "Russian cigarette", beech smoke.

A FAMILY SAGA, A BOOK PRINTED BY GLENAT

On the occasion of the 40th anniversary of the House, a very beautiful book « Les Meilleur à La Bouitte, 3 étoiles en Savoie » was printed (public price: 49€ ; 256 pages ; format : 240 x 320 mm).

Numerous, precisely explained, recipes are disclosed. Odes to the Savoyard terroir, they purify and magnify the classics while taking them into another dimension.

But it is, above all, a book with an artistic dimension due to the beauty of its layout, Henri Pelletier's magnificent writing and the high quality of the photos by the talented Matthieu Cellard. These two artists have managed to pierce the magic of this place and its singular environment, which resembles nothing else on earth. They have captured each instant, from fleeting moments, smiles, the ephemeral light, the subtlety of colours to the texture of the materials, little things that make up the inimitable charm of La Bouitte.

They have also managed to capture the timeless character, a feeling of eternity, a state of being between emotion, simplicity and truth, a certain form of humanism. What is La Bouitte if it isn't the joy of receiving and sharing, under the caring and mischievous look of René the patriarch? Along with Maxime's continual quest for perfection. In their superb stone and wood house where each object tells a story, one is not just welcomed, but received, par a family, in their home, around the fireplace. The Meilleurs have emancipated themselves from models and fashion to create, without artifice but with passion and an appetite for life, one of the most beautiful and most remarkable homes in the Alps.

More than just a selection of recipes, this book retraces the 40 years of the improbable saga of the Meilleur family. And it shows just what an incredible experience it is to stay in this dream chalet.

WINES AND GASTRONOMY AT THE TOP

THE INCOMPARABLE BENEFIT OF ALTITUDE ELUCIDATED AT LA BOUITTE

The taste of food and wine in the mountains procures intense pleasure, thanks to the flavours and the sensations unknown lower down in the valleys. The art of cooking and tasting changes depending on the altitude.

With an atmospheric pressure and a lower percentage of oxygen, a lighter, colder and dryer air, the Chefs must adjust their cooking methods. Water boils at 95° at La Bouitte : it thus takes at least one minute extra to cook a boiled egg. The time that the bread dough takes to rise is reduced by half due to the amplified action of carbon dioxide.

In order to adapt to the low-oxygen mountain air, one's body produces more red blood cells ; the heart and respiration frequency accelerates. With the cold, the dryness and the dehydration, the human body has the physiological need to eat more. Our senses, particularly our taste buds, are sharpened and stimulated.

But the most spectacular effects of altitude are seen in oenology. Wines conserved at altitude become denser, longer, purer, and more harmonious than those conserved down the valley. They offer more elegant aromas and a more blossomed fruit. With the lower stratospheric pressure (less dissolved carbon dioxide) the wines age slower. Their evolution in the mountains gains in complexity and precision, to arrive at an unhoped-for balance. They appear younger, more spheric and subtle.

The red wines have clearly a more gentler tannin and a more mellow texture. And the Champagnes really find their festive status with more effervescent and smaller bubbles, with light and nuanced aromas.

For a while now, René and Maxime MEILLEUR have been convinced of the fundamental interest of altitude. With Yves BONTOUX and Nicolas de RABAUDY, they got together in 2004 and 2005 no less than 25 wine tasting experts, with both scientific and oenological knowledge (Michel Bettane, Bernard Burtschy, Michel Dovaz, Alain Raynaud...). Please ask for the detailed results of this event of this event, Les Vins

au Sommet, which clarified the understanding of these phenomena (about twenty wines back to the year 1983 were tasted over 4 days, down in the valley in Moûtiers, at La Bouitte at 1500 m and at l'Oxalys at 2300 m)

Decidedly, in the mountains, there are all the ingredients to turn a culinary and oenological experience into a moment of pleasure. Even the assimilation of alcohol, accelerated by the altitude, induces this gentle mountain peak insobriety. Not forgetting the essential: this euphoria, this fulfilment, which we owe to the majesty of the setting, the pleasure of sharing a moment of conviviality, more often than not in the context of a holiday, and lastly to the reward of the feast after the invigorating effort of a wonderful day's skiing.

A DREAM WINE CELLAR

With its 4 sommeliers, under the leadership of the young and talented Francis Giraud, La Bouitte offers an excellent selection of 1001 wines (more than 3000 counting those which are in the ageing cellar) from 1937 to 2021, making it one of the finest wine cellars in the Alps, (downloadable on <https://www.la-bouitte.com/fr/vin-soirees-oenologiques/amour-vision-du-vin.html>).

Since 1976, the Meilleur family has patiently collected the best wines from all the regions,

With the encyclopaedic desire to represent the most unique or distinguished terroirs, and the interpretations of the most successful winegrowers. Preference is given to Domaines developing a real environmental project and revealing the soul of their place.

As the cuisine is suggestive, subtle, delicate both in terms of taste and texture, La Bouitte favours wines with this same DNA. While remaining open to great wines of all styles, to embrace everything that is possible and constantly calling themselves into question.

Since winter 2012-2013, La Bouitte has paid tribute to its favourite winemakers and famous wine critics during memorable oenological evenings, with its guests coming from all 5 continents (see page 26).

OUR WINE-GROWING FRIENDS TALK ABOUT LA BOUITTE

Aubert DE VILLAINÉ, CEO of the Domaine de la Romanée Conti:

«I have a very vivid memory of our time at La Bouitte with the Meilleur family. In this family home located in the heart of a magnificent forest region, our wines have found a unique setting. This dinner, where the excellence of the cuisine was put in perfect conjunction with the grands crus that we presented, will remain in my memory as one of the most successful and friendly moments of sharing that I have known».

Xavier SANCHEZ, Châteaux Pichon Baron, Clos de l'Arlet and Quinta do Noval:

«La Bouitte is an unimaginable success and family saga. Knowing most of the "3 Michelin stars", I place this House among the most essential. What strikes one and moves one is above all this truth, this evidence, this natural kindness that emanates from this endearing family. When I arrived, Maxime was doing masonry, making a stone wall with his hands. And in the evening, he orchestrated the work in the kitchen. The Meilleur are Earthlings, rooted humanists who know where they come from and who have remained humble. I do not know of any House which combines excellence of culinary art with such an extraordinary, true and accessible human side. And with rare accuracy. The cuisine is unique, precise, complex, combining their roots, quality and respect for products, a touch of modernity, but never falling into the superficial or the excessive. There is no search for an effect: we are in being. What this family is, comes across in the dishes. I still have a fond memory of a pike from Lake Geneva, frothy white butter, asparagus: an apparently simple title but a dish that turns out to be memorable. Arguably the best dish of lake fish in my life.

And what about the dream environment, this chalet that hugs the summits, where each element, each piece of furniture is in its right place (here there are no designer chairs), the spa that invites you to relax and abolish time. La Bouitte inspires total respect. We know why we are going there: the essence of a dream mountain, and the family's so naturally affectionate and sincere nature».

Audrey BRACCINI, Manageress of the Domaine Ferret:

«If it were still necessary to prove that it is indeed a sum of minute details that makes quality, the team of René and Maxime Meilleur as a whole proved it to us during this magical evening of April 2017. I left moved, disturbed because rarely such a talent presents itself.

Courage: a lot, work: even more, ambition: a backbone but above all daring ... There are few people in this world who are able to play music as a virtuoso without never have learned music theory. Here we have brilliant examples of people who have a gift for turning everything they do into a success. With flair, rightly, to the delight of our eyes and taste buds, it is about cooking; but let's not forget the sporting or perhaps less well-known feats of woodworking which are also glaring testimonies.

I do not forget the “ladies in the shadows” either, without whom this jewel case would not have the same brilliance».

Didier DEPOND, CEO Champagne Salon:

«I often think of this evening at La Bouitte and the delights of this dinner.

The memory remains intact for me: the friendliness and warmth of the place, the family welcome where everyone is in their place, the smile on their faces and what struck me was the expression of the two chefs, father, and son. Bright, happy, precise, serious, and caring eyes. The cuisine, breath-taking because it is well anchored in the reality of its “terroir”, modern but not delirious, but how could it be when the nature that surrounds this place commands respect and modesty?

A lesson».

Anne TRIMBACH, from the Domaine Trimbach:

«La Bouitte, in a few words, if they are enough: an unforgettable experience for a weekend in August. Firstly, there is the Meilleur Family, so welcoming, and their staff so cheerful, of course the Grande Cuisine, perfect, balanced, the wine list, the place as welcoming as one can hope, and, for a gourmet like me, breakfast, which I place as “the best breakfast of my life”. In short, nothing has yet found an equal ... except my memories!».

Olivier HUMBRECHT, CEO of the Domaine Zind - Humbrecht:

«For my wife Margaret and I, the La Bouitte’s cuisine around our wines was an incredible experience. It is one of the great French tables, there is no doubt about it, but the experience was all the more beautiful since the Meilleur family are hosts of incredible kindness and generosity».

Daniel RAVIER, Director of the Domaine Tempier:

«At 5.30 pm we are sitting in the small lounge and chatting with the Meilleur family. We don't know each other but the welcome is so warm that time flies. This April evening promises to be mild. “Good, I have to go pick some herbs for tonight before it gets dark,” René gives the signal, Maxime goes back to the kitchen and his ladies busy themselves organising the evening with the sommelier (?) and Yves Bontoux.

And what an evening!! The chefs did everything to promote the expression of the wines of the Domaine. The snails with peas (the snails so tender and the crunch of the peas in their velouté: fabulous!), the monkfish from the lake or the poultry with the famous wild salad shoots picked earlier in the day are unforgettable.

A magical night in this place full of serenity, a breakfast so good that it would make the child who sleeps in each of us dream and so generous that we feel like a woodcutter’s soul ready to attack the surrounding forests (it was actually the pistes in the end).

Four years later, it remains a lasting memory for us even after just a day's visit. Some collect stamps or cars; in terms of sensory emotions, the Meilleur family and the Bouitte team through their generosity, simplicity and kindness gave us a memory worthy of their name: magic for all the senses. One word: thank you!».

Hervé DESCHAMPS, Cellar master Champagne Perrier-Jouët:

«On 17th July 2013, as Cellar master at Champagne Perrier-Jouët, I had great pleasure in presenting the Belle Epoque cuvées. A memorable evening in a unique place bringing together exigency, respect, passion, and the quest for excellence in a family atmosphere. An authentic atmosphere where the Meilleur family and their team magnified the finesse and elegance of the Belle Epoque cuvées with a refined dinner where subtlety and the love of beauty and goodness created a moment of harmony».

Thierry and Marie GERMAIN, managers of the Domaine des Roches Neuves:

«The Meilleur family gave us a warm welcome.

We will retain the incredible investment of René and Maxime and their entire team who combined all their talents to enhance our wines.

The different dishes that were served during the wine-tasting evening were not only fabulous but matched perfectly with the different wines presented. It is very rare to have this perfect harmony! It is therefore wonderful memories of exchange, sharing, good humour and exigency that we will retain from this stay at La Bouitte with all the members of this very endearing Meilleur family. And I'm not talking about the wonderful table company of whom we keep a very happy memory!»

Sandrine GARBAY, Cellar master at Château Yquem:

“A great memory of this beautiful oenological evening at La Bouitte, in December, when the first winter snows generously envelop the landscape. I enter the house, and the charm operates instantly: the elegance of the place is matched only by the warm atmosphere enhanced by the wood, I feel good, the welcome is familiar and refined at the same time. A little later in the evening, the marriage of the Yquem wines with the precise cuisine of René and Maxime is a pure delight, first for the eyes, but also for the taste buds too of course! Everything is perfect, the guests are adorable, and we all have an excellent moment of gourmet sharing ... I can never thank Marc Lagrange enough for having this rich idea, nor René and Maxime for having worked so well to accompany with such delicacy our Golden bottles”.

David SABON, from Clos du Mont-Olivet:

«A huge thank you to all the DREAM TEAM from LA BOUITTE !! I came back enchanted as much by the quality of the service as by the magic welcome which I was given!! The talent of Maxime and René Meilleur is matched only by their kindness!!

Thank you again for your generosity and the excellent ambassadorial work you do for us!»

Anne-Françoise PARENT-GROS:

“It’s a wonderful memory ..... full of stars ....

Intended for wine and cooking enthusiasts, the meal organised by the chefs René and Maxime Meilleur with the help of their wives, in their restaurant at La Bouitte found an almost musical resonance with our wines AF GROS and François PARENT. The sophisticated alliance of intensely pure and precise dishes highlighted the range of flavours of our Burgundies and revealed the silky body of the Wine in all its finesse and subtlety.

We have in common working as a family, the passion and the exigency of our professions which evolve constantly with the seasons and the awareness that we are the guardians of a certain idea of the image of French Life”.

Florence CATHIARD, Château Smith Haut Lafitte:

“If our profession of winegrower leads us to frequent a number of Tables, I have rarely lived a moment as special and true as at La Bouitte. It’s first a beautiful encounter: that of a family with deep roots in love with its mountain. The memory that they anchor in us is as strong as the anchoring that they have in themselves. They express their “terroir” magnificently, offering an incomparable palette of flavours. They invite us to a tasteful, airy, nuanced cuisine. Even the breakfast is the best I've ever tasted in my life.

We are far beyond the fashion, locavore, landmarks and the cocoon, which we find in so many Michelin starred tables. Too many gourmet restaurants are alike. La Bouitte is unlike anything known. In the natural extension of the superb surrounding mountains, one lives a unique and inspiring experience”.

Catherine FALLER, Domaine Weinbach:

“What I savoured at La Bouitte was the character and hospitality of this family house, the omnipresent sense of detail, the love that “the Meilleur’s” share with their guests for their territory, and their rare gift for creating culinary compositions perfectly matching the soul of each wine. A singular alchemy, a moment of happiness that cannot be forgotten”.

Eric de SAINT VICTOR, Château Pibarnon:

“From the very first minute at the Meilleur’s, we feel caught up in the humanity and simplicity of René and Maxime. The place is so welcoming, that one dreams of being at home, in the mountains, in the maze of corridors and frescoes of this comfortable chalet with its discreet and tasteful luxury with no ostentation whatsoever.

The Meilleur reach the grail of excellence: all their talent is so complete, that they dare simplicity, delicacy and audacity, while being accessible, modest and very friendly. You could say that with them, the Meilleur (best in French) is as much on the plate as in their simple contact and above all their generosity and their sense of sharing. They are serene people who shine and work as a family. Their whole team is in this spirit.

The food and wine pairing dinner at the end of June 2019 reminded me of the one I did with Mr. Alain Senderens, with the same research and the same relaxation, those that one finds in professional people who dominate their art, with a real passion and a taste for the game (too!).

In short, it's a memory that will remain with me for a very long time.”

HÔTEL***** RELAIS & CHÂTEAUX

A MOVE UP-MARKET WITH A STRENGTHENING OF IDENTITY

For a long time, La Bouitte embodied a remarkable restaurant, with charming guest rooms. The 3rd star awarded by the Michelin Guide in 2015 helped accelerate the move up-market of the hotel and the Spa, by embracing the strong identity of the restaurant.

With the Relais & Châteaux label since 1st July 2016, classified as a ***** hotel since summer 2017, a member of the Virtuoso network since 2019, in recent years La Bouitte has undergone an impressive transformation to become a real destination, unique in many ways.

Joining Relais & Châteaux was a heartfelt choice, reinforced by their shared essential values: the sense of family, the promotion of a terroir, the quest for excellence, hospitality, the art of living, elegance and authenticity.

2017 is a symbolic year for La Bouitte, being both its 40th year of existence, and the 20th year that René and Maxime Meilleur have worked side by side. It will be remembered for the hotel's spectacular move upmarket, with an indoor expansion of nearly 1,000 m<sup>2</sup> to increase comfort. Efforts, which have been constantly reinforced since. Here is the list of the main investments made since 2017, which have enabled La Bouitte to become a top-class hotel:

- Outdoor facilities: an old water trough, a stream on both facades, a vegetable garden, a large, heated terrace...
- An extended reception and a new cosy lounge with open fireplace
- The addition of many services: valet parking, porter, concierge, butler, 24h/24h reception... For the comfort of guests, the team has grown from 40 to 58 employees (in high season).
- Multiple renovations in the older bedrooms
- Creation of the Sophie suite (a favourite place in this dream chalet setting, a true concentrate of the soul of La Bouitte) and Augustine suite (over 60 m<sup>2</sup>, an ideal cocoon for families and couples)
- The acquisition of remarkable historic alpine furniture
- Partnership with Arpin fabrics, the last Savoy spinning mill in Séz (staff clothing, curtains, armchairs, sofas, etc.).
- A gallery lined with Savoyard art craftsmanship (baroque works, pottery, paintings)
- The addition of multiple facilities (a lift decorated with frescoes by Philippe Metaireau, an underground garage, a new breakfast room)
- Creation of a mountain Nature Spa and the MEILLEUR Nature cosmetic brande.

The House has also gained a lot in amenities, equipment, comfort and attention to detail. The outstanding success of this new La Bouitte chapter lies in the fact that it is impossible to distinguish the additional 1000m<sup>2</sup> from the existing, so much the extension fits in perfectly with the older parts of the building. What is the reason behind this prowess? The skills of René and Maxime Meilleur, who sculpted the wood themselves, have built La Bouitte with their hands year by year, by using principally old material (wooden beams that are centuries old taken from dismantled old chalets then re-worked). Thus, La Bouitte appears like a compact soul of the Savoy from its origins up to the present day.

EACH BEDROOM TELLS A STORY

Each of the 15 bedrooms (including 7 suites) has a unique name, soul, charm and identity. Offering a sheltered and cosy setting, they embody the spirit of the yesteryear houses of the Savoy with the omnipresence of sculptured wood, the warmth of fabrics, and furniture and decorative elements some of which date back to the 17th century. Over the years, the acquisitions and the orders given to craftsmen, artists and sculptors, La Bouitte has collected an unrivalled cultural and artistic heritage.

The improvements and renovations have preserved the original spirit. With pretty parquet floors, redesigned lighting, and comfortable bathrooms (some with bath + shower), they sometimes have a fireplace and walk-in wardrobe.

Absolute comfort, a change of scenery and return to one's roots, up market always in the quest for sense and beauty, authenticity without abandoning, here and there, a few lines purer and design, care in even small details and modern technology are the hotel signature of the Meilleur family.

A BOUITTE JOINS VIRTUOSO

Virtuoso is the top international network of travel agencies specialising in luxury and experience-giving travel. This invitation-only organisation includes more than 1,000 travel agency partners in North America, Latin America, the Caribbean, Europe, Asia-Pacific, Africa and the Middle East, and its collection includes the best luxury hotels, resorts, cruise companies, tour operators and other worldwide holiday providers.

Virtuoso's approval process is incredibly selective. This means that becoming a privileged partner is a real honour. Virtuoso's reputation for extreme dedication to their customers is in perfect harmony with the tailored approach to La Bouitte's services.

Yet one more guarantee of the highest quality of service to which are dedicated the Meilleur family and their entire team.

A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE BETWEEN AUTHENTICITY, ART OF LIVING AND LUXURY

By cultivating their DNA and preserving their soul, the charming bedrooms, originally managed like a bed and breakfast, have become a hotel**** Relais & Châteaux. With the aim of offering the same professionalism as for the restaurant. Coherence, harmony, fluidity, a feeling of obviousness are key words. La Bouitte is constantly thinking about the comfort and well-being of its guests. Away from all fashion trends, it exceeds expectations, creates experiences to live and those, so precious, moments of sharing.

Rare are the examples around the world, that combine, so naturally, such true authenticity (a family with roots in the valley going back generations, sharing with their guests a culinary, oenological, cultural, and decorative heritage), an art of living (a unique experience, carrying emotion and an idealized authenticity) and luxury services (attention to detail taken a long way).

With its strong embedded identity, innate sense of common sense and long-term vision, La Bouitte has never stopped developing and investing since 1976. It enjoys the love and loyalty of its guests, a rare thing among 3 Michelin star establishments. 80% of the guests are returning clients. Many come more than 5 times a year, despite their geographical distance.

Some even participate at all the oenological evenings!

THE MEILLEURS AND THEIR GUESTS: A IMPROBABLE LARGE FAMILY

At La Bouitte, you are welcomed like a member of the family. The key words are attention, kindness, sharing and generosity. Everyday our guests make us want to surpass ourselves, to create relationships and vivid memories. The Meilleur are with their guests from their first breakfast through to the last guest enjoying a brandy late at night. La Bouitte, like a beautiful maze, is also a succession of living areas, an ideal place to recharge one's batteries. The lounges, meeting places, charm with their refined and warm atmospheres.

THE «BERGER» BREAKFAST

"The best breakfast of my life". A lovely compliment, which one often hears guests' saying after breakfast at La Bouitte.

In a room with a mountain spirit, or in your bedroom, breakfasts are served in very pretty pottery by the Morzinese artisan, Gérard Menu. To start the day with relish, La Bouitte offers (a buffet and partly table service):

THE "BÈLA VYA", MOUNTAIN NATURE SPA

René and Maxime Meilleur invite you to enjoy a really different relaxing experience in the heart of the mountains.

Since the beginning of time, men have looked to nature for body and spirit remedies. In the Alpine Valleys, the art of healing using products offered by the environment exists to this day. Water, milk, hay, honey, aromatic herbs have always worked marvels.

Today, more than ever, to relax in baths, get back one's energy thanks to the mountain elements, the most natural setting, answers a fundamental need. With the effect of replacing stress and tiredness with invigoration and energy. The mountains are the ideal setting to regenerate, relax and revitalise oneself: pure air, multiple scents, less oxygen, blue skies, fresh starry nights and harmony between man and the elements.

Proud of its origins, living in osmosis with its environment, La Bouitte's cuisine is a tribute to nature and Savoyard "terroir". In the continuation of this philosophy of life, La Bouitte created the cosmetic brand MEILLEUR Nature and developed a unique Mountain Spa, deliciously intimate: The "Bèla Vya".

Since 2017, the « La Bèla Vya » Spa has been re-thought out, moved and made a great deal bigger.

The aquatic area offers a pool in the form of a lake with jets and waterfall for well-being and relaxation, a sauna with spruce, a hammam with citrus fruits, the Marmot's Den, treatment rooms including a new duo cabin, a herbal tea room, a solarium and a fitness area. In a corner, a large trunk holds a treasure: an abundance of pink Himalayan salt, with its ancestral sanitary virtues. And outside, a new jacuzzi was installed in 2019: let yourself go in the warmth of the water. Quietude guaranteed. Intense sensations with real therapeutic virtues: 6 distinct places, with specific functions and jets which successively massage the whole body.

3 exclusive treatments, which have become La Bouitte's "unmissable" moments, highlight the natural benefits of our land:

- Le Solan with hay, a steam bath with hay harvested in Saint Marcel: in an enclosed bed, enjoy voluptuous alpine smells. To decompress gently, each massage will be followed by ten minutes in the hay Solan, before going to the solarium/relaxation room. A wonderful escape towards the fields, nature and childhood!

- le Bain de Marie with milk and honey from Saint Marcel: ideal for softening and rehydrating the skin, thanks to the vitamins and mineral salts that it contains.

- The Marmots' Den. Since 2017, The Bèla Vya offers a unique well-being are: Through this treatment, the Meilleur family invite you to discover the life of marmots and their den, a place where you, like the marmots, will find gentleness and comfort. To clean themselves, marmots love to play in and cover themselves with earth which they then let dry in the sun. Then they wait for it to rain, or alternatively, look for a stream or a waterfall in which to wash themselves. The Marmots' Den is a mountain treatment preferably done as a duo which reproduces this ritual. In a warm, humid atmosphere, like a hammam, you are coated with green clay. This unique treatment in France brings real benefits to the skin, facilitating the elimination of toxins, cutaneous marks, and impurities. Green clay is known for its anti-inflammatory, antiseptic and absorbent properties. Then after a 25-minute rest, comes the storm: rain comes down from the ceiling of the Den to rinse you.

La Bouitte continues to improve its Spa every year:

- decorative elements
- strengthening of the Meilleur Nature cosmetics brand
- an extensive range of home-made herbal teas, concocted by our sommeliers - often based on plants that they pick themselves in the mountain pastures -, and accompanied by a succulent biscuit or gingerbread from our pastry chef

COSMETIC BRAND «MEILLEUR NATURE»

An exclusive range of treatments with epilobium extract.

« MEILLEUR Nature » was born from a passion for the richness of the natural Alpine heritage. In their cuisine, René and Maxime Meilleur's highlight the flavours of mountain plants. These plants are also used in cosmetics for their active ingredients and health benefits.

By using principally epilobium extract, the perfume craftsman, Valérie Mallens, from the Asinerie des Alpes, has developed for La Bouitte an innovative and exclusive line.

Used for centuries by Amerindians for its calming properties, epilobium extract favours rehydration and calms sensitive skin.

Epilobium grows in our Vallée des Belleville up to an altitude of 2500 metres: its flowers are presented in a bunch with a purple pink and magenta colour. Its extract is rich in flavonoids, vitamin C and provitamin A. It has multiple properties: mattifying and astringent but also lifting and re-firming.

Since 2017, La Bouitte offers a full range of products and treatments with epilobium extract: shower cream, shampoo, gentle soap (products that are offered to our guests at La Bouitte during their stay), body treatment elixir, face cream, Virtuose unctuous ex-foliation (palmarosa and rosewood), an extraordinary Virtuose mask (including extracts of epilobium and edelweiss), a massage oil (with organic hazelnut, argan and sesame oil), a lifting serum (hyper concentrated in pure hyaluronic acid, with asses' milk and Alpine flower extracts) ...

Without synthetic colouring nor paraben, SLS or ethanol, our bases contain essential oils and waxes, which protect the skin from drying out thanks to their fatty acids.

L'Eau de parfum "1502 m": a precious gift, a La Bouitte exclusivity

Maxime and René Meilleur wanted to create a Eau de parfum with a perfume craftsman, one which represented an elegant floral, new and linked with their identity and in harmony with their creativity.

Inspired by the memories of a summer night on the terrace of the chalet, surrounded by a gentle humid warmth, "Le 1502 m", created in 2017, invites you on a journey into the nature of the Alps between modernity and tradition. Its fragrances charm you into an infinite floral resonance. A gourmet aspect like a rose jam for the main note, amber and musky. Then a voluptuous sensation of the accords of cashmere woods, a synonym of luxury and elegance.
